

Nomination Form

Clubperson of the Year 2023

Criteria:

Awarded to the club volunteer who makes the most significant contribution to the club and its activities.

The person who works for the benefit of the Club, dedicated to 'helping' with various activities for the benefit of the sport and our club. They work tirelessly without the expectation of recognition, often the 'unsung hero'. This person does not have to be an office holder or have any specific job. No minimum years of service are required to attain this award.

The person is of good character and conforms to the Code of Conduct as outlined by Bowls Queensland.
