

Greens Report

BOM meeting December 2025

The Stanton green continues to improve & is looking very impressive, with only a few sandy areas predominantly around the edges which will benefit from some much needed rain.

The Mitchell green is also progressing extremely well & is on schedule to come back into play very soon. The only minor setback being that we needed to top dress the green again after the crazy storm that we all endured.

Regards

Andy Ives